Level:	Institute/State/City/National/International
Name, Organization and Designation of Expert	Dr.Meeta Meshram, Associate Professor, NBN School of Business Management Pune.
Number of students benefitted	75
Summary report:	Dr.Meeta Madam Started the session she said that your personal brand can help elevate your attributes and strengths to help you differentiate yourself from the rest; your personal brand is your career, your business insurance policy, and your reputation both online and off. Madam explained that, there is a reason why executives and professionals are starting to pay attention to and invest in a personal brand, with the state of today's job market, it is becoming increasingly challenging for individuals to stand out from their peers and competitors. Madam discussed the branding rules with students, and told them, if you have already identified the skills and strengths you have then, you're already ahead in building your personal brand. Madam said that, Professional behavior in the workplace is a combination of attitude, appearance and manners. It includes the way you speak, look, act and make decisions.
Outcome:	Students understood that Personal branding is important for perusing career and personality.
