New Delhi, UPDATED: Feb 4, 2018 15:10 IST

Amidst the tens of thousands of management graduates churned out by the 5,500 B-schools in the country, only 7 per cent turn out to be employable, says a study conducted by ASSOCIAM.

MBA graduates are spending lakhs of rupees on their management education, but after graduating, most of them are earning a measly 8000 to 10,000 rupees per month that too, only when they are able to find placements.
