Title of the Activity:	Guest Session: "Role of mediation and dispute resolution in the workplace"
Day & Date:	20th January 2024 (Saturday)
Category of Activity:	Curricular/co-curricular/Extra-curricular activity
Organized Under:	IQAC, NDLI, 4 th Dimension Lecture Series, IIC
Objectives:	To Understand the concept and role of mediation and dispute resolution in the workplace. To know about how to resolve conflicts as it empowers employees.
Level:	Institute/State/City/National/International
Name, Organization and Designation of Expert	Dr. Dilip Aher, Associate Professor at Arihant Institute of Business Management.
Number of students benefitted	55
Summary report:	Dr. Dilip Aher Sir Started the session and said that Mediation is a problem-solving technique with the help of a neutral third party called mediator, he navigates into the conflict without any capacity to make a binding agreement. The mediator assists the parties to have effective communication in a structured manner, improve their working relationship, identify their needs and interests, thereby explore the issues and finally help the parties to come out with a voluntary agreement. Sir explained that mediation in workplaces seems appropriate to maintain an ongoing relationship between the conflicting parties in an Organization and it can be used to solve many issues relating to workplace disputes. Sir told that the confidentiality aspect of mediation maintains the integrity and dignity of the disputing parties. At the end of session sir discussed some case studies with students.
Outcome:	Students understood the concepts of mediation and dispute resolution in the workplace.
